

Angela Williams

Brooklyn, NY

Angela Williams is a Senior Administrator at Accenture Interactive in New York City. She began working as an Administrator in 2000 with leading companies such as Goldman Sachs and McKinsey & Co. In 2009, she found her niche in advertising at Publicis.

Angela is a devoted community advocate throughout Brooklyn, volunteering with local organizations and service initiatives, such as Brownsville Heritage House, Sisters with Purpose, and Made in Brownsville. She is particularly committed to facilitating self-esteem building workshops for adolescent girls (age 8 to 14), advising them on the importance of physical, mental, and spiritual health. She is a charter member and Immediate Past Chapter President of East Kings County Alumnae of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Ms. Williams has also served as Delta's Eastern Regional Representative and her leadership has included serving on regional and national committees of the Sorority. She was a participant in the Delta Torch Program, Eastern Region E3 initiative, and the National Long Range Planning Task Force.

The Brooklyn, NY native is a graduate of the John Jay College of Criminal Justice with a degree in Forensic Psychology. Ms. Williams is a member of the John Jay College Alumni Association and local chapters of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and the National Council of Negro Women (NCNW).