

Gwendolyn Mason

Atlanta, GA

Gwendolyn Mason is an Author, Motivational Speaker, Community Advocate, Hall of Famer, and presiding Pastor of Solid Rock Ministries. She is the Co-Founder and Executive Director of the Stewart Foundation, a youth-leadership development program and President/CEO of GABB Enterprise, a multi-dimensional communications company committed to transforming customer relationships. She is a member of Delta Sigma Theta, Sorority, Inc. and has served on its National Executive Board (2017-2021). She was elected to the DREF Board of Directors in 2022.

Ms. Mason has served as the Executive Director for the “Walk Against the Call,” a breast-cancer walk, where she raised more than $100,000 in monetary and in-kind donations. The fundraiser is now known as the “Pink Ribbon Walk.” A former corporate executive, charged with orchestrating and building training organizations, she was responsible for internal and external communications, training development, and delivery. Gwen has been in the communications industry for 20+ years and has held multiple positions: Critical Issues Manager, Directorate Escalations Manager, Area Operations Manager, Communications Manager, Sales Manager, and Training Delivery Associate Director.

An Atlanta native, she has received a multitude of awards such as Congressional Trailblazer, SCLC Women Who Care, Atlanta Journal Constitution’s Best All Around and others. Ms. Mason is a graduate of the University of West Georgia and holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mass Communications with an emphasis in Electronics. She earned a Master of Science in Human Resources with an emphasis in Training and Development from National Louis University, where she graduated with honors. Gwendolyn Mason is the mother of three thriving young adults: Milan, Jordan, and Jacob.