

Dorcas Washington

Executive Director, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

Executive Director, Soror Dorcas Washington joined the Headquarters staff as the Deputy Executive Director in October 2016. Soror Washington is the first Deputy Executive Director since the 1990s when the organization last included the position in its managerial structure.

As Deputy Executive Director, Soror Washington provides operational leadership in the following areas: Documents Management, Policies and Procedures, Programs, Events Management and the Sorority's Customer Support Service Center. In preparation for her assignment as Deputy Executive Director, Soror Washington spent more than 25 years managing people and processes in public and private environments. While her degree is in Human Resources Management, her experience includes contract management, event planning, account management, customer relations, and budget management. She describes herself as a transformational leader specializing in the art of identifying and developing talent to exceed expectations. Dorcas was initiated into the Kappa Upsilon Chapter at Auburn University on November 24, 1985. She has been an active member of alumnae chapters in two regions and has held a position on the Executive Committee in each. Soror Washington serves as the Immediate Past President and chair of the Strategic Planning Committee for the Tallahassee Alumnae Chapter. She is also a certified DID trainer, membership intake trainer, and collegiate chapter advisor.
